
J Channell - Greetings from the Discard Pile

J Channell is a guitarist and vocalist from Pittsburgh who blends inspiration from '90s riot grrrl bands like Lunachicks and Veruca Salt and drum-machine-heavy acts like Colleen Green and Le Tigre into a unique fusion of punk rock, queercore, and disco.

After releasing several demos and singles since 2023, J Channell is releasing her debut album, Greetings from the Discard Pile, on digital, vinyl, CD, and cassette in September 2026. Featuring both new material and re-recorded songs from her demos, the album reflects upon the struggles, pressures, and abuse she has faced as a transgender woman.

With a growing fan base stemming from her work with the band Lylyth, J Channell is an artist on the rise, bringing a hard rock edge to the Pittsburgh queer music scene.

ACCOLADES

"Fun and Danceable!" - The Girl at the Rock Shows

"...tackles a deeply personal subject with refreshing honesty and charm. Even with the serious subject matter, the track has a lively, danceable energy due to the strong groove and spirited performance." - Soaplife Magazine

With her band Lylyth, J Channell has shared the stage with artists such as The Dead Milkmen, The Anti-Queens, War on Women, Ekko Astral, Pop Music Fever Dream, and Crush Fund.

FOR FANS OF

PJ Harvey
Colleen Green
Le Tigre
Crush Fund
Lunachicks
Veruca Salt

Produced by Jane Channell

Mixed and Mastered by David Klug

Photo Credit: Lilith M.

September 1st, 2026

Track Listing

1. Intro
2. Do Better
3. I Could Ask Mara
4. Every Goddamned Day
5. Recovering Oversharer
6. Now, That's What I Call Social Dysphoria Vol. 7
7. AstroTERF
8. Grey Rock With Nice Tits
9. Can't Read the Chemistry
10. Time to Accept
11. A-OK

Running Time

31 min

Label

Brainwrap City Media (self released)

SKU/Catalog ID

TBA

Genre

Rock/Electronic/Punk

Location

Pittsburgh, PA, USA

Artist Social Links

IG: @jchannellmusic

Thanks for your consideration!

Label Contact: J Channell
me@jchannell.com

Artist Press Page